

BALLS TO THE NEWS

A PUBLICATION DEDICATED TO THE CULTURE OF THE PORTLAND DODGEBALL LEAGUE AND HOW RIDICULOUSLY FUN THIS SPORT IS.

Issue 7

Summah!

Dodgeball National News:

Sub allegedly chokes student during dodgeball game

June 17, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. --New York police say a substitute gym teacher put a 10-year-old student in a chokehold after the two got in an argument over a dodgeball game. The Daniel Webster Elementary School sub was charged Friday with third-degree assault, endangering the welfare of a child and harassment.

Detective Thomas Leak said the 58-year-old sub apparently began calling the boy 'a big baby' and a 'crybaby' after they argued about a call in a dodgeball game.

Leak says the boy threw a punch at the sub but missed. He says the sub grabbed the boy by the back of the neck and dragged him across the gym floor. Leak says the sub put the boy in a chokehold when he tried to break free.

The boy was taken to a hospital with neck and back pain. The sub told police he acted in self-defense.

Sweet Photo

Students challenge cops in a game of Dodgeball

CEDAR RAPIDS (KWWL)-- Get ready to dip, dive, duck and dodge-- the battle is on Wednesday as Cedar Rapids cops take on Harding Middle School students for a game of dodgeball.

The second annual event benefits the Cedar Rapids Police Department K9 Unit.

Wednesday's match-up is at 1 p.m. at the Harding Gymnasium. The

Featured Player:

Uncle Rico

Strengths: Throws 1/4 mile

Weaknesses: Belief in a time machine

Food: Steak

Occupation: Sales

Flashback: Chuck Norris of the Spring Season

Balls to the News wants you! Contribute to our newsletter with a column, quote, or story.

Contact: pat@cascoabaysports.com